

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

LIFE INSURANCE AWARENESS MONTH

- WHEREAS: When a family loses a loved one, having life insurance can provide a tremendous source of financial relief and security during a somber time by covering medical bills, funeral costs, and other expenses; and
- WHEREAS: Roughly 95 million adult Americans do not have a life insurance policy. Of those families who do carry life insurance policies, many lack the coverage recommend by experts; and
- WHEREAS: Following the death of a family member, some families may experience increased financial vulnerability, making life insurance coverage especially important today; and
- WHEREAS: Despite the peace of mind that life insurance brings to millions of American families, there are still too many Americans who lack adequate coverage; and
- WHEREAS: The National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors represents life insurance companies and other organizations that strive to increase awareness of the need for life insurance protection, encourage consumers to seek advice from qualified insurance professionals, and promote a financially secure future for citizens of our state; now
- THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim September 2018 as LIFE INSURANCE AWARENESS MONTH in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 26th day of April in the year of our Lord two thousand eighteen.
